

Carpe Diem, Santorini, Greece

Away from Santorini's hustle and bustle and ideally located in the island's highest and prettiest village of Pyrgos, you will find the privacy of this all-suite, adults-only boutique spa hotel. Each suite is sleek and luxurious, boasting stunning 270-degree views to watch the most spectacular sunsets and sunrises from your private plunge pools. The beautiful underground spa has been specifically designed for romance with double treatment rooms for couples who seek romantic relaxation and seclusion.

The hotel's fine-dining restaurant Gaia serves fresh local and authentic cuisine, and is completely exclusive to hotel guests. Watching the sea views, you can sit and relax with a cocktail by the infinity pool. But if you prefer, you can also choose to enjoy your meals on your own private terrace.

This hotel really does take luxury to the next level with its Champagne bar. It has Bang & Olufsen sound systems, butler service, and with a staff to guest ratio of 1:1, nothing is too much trouble.

● Seven nights at Carpe Diem starts from £1,560 for two people. (Carpediemsantorini.com).

